State Chairmen Busy Too.

The result was that thirty-three of the fifty-three national committeemen sent felegrams to Mr. Hughes or called on him in person to speak their minds on the subject of the chairmanship and the sub-committee. Thirty Republican State chairmen have done the same thing so the nominee might have before him a convincing array of party leaders throughout the entire country. And they told Mr. Hughes that if after studying their sentiments as they piled up before him at his Hotel Astor headquarters he still entertained any doubt about the feeling of the National Committee into consultation and settle it.

The tenor of all the messages to Mr. Hughes was this: That the Crane committee in the chair manship. # The Fine Book Shop Holds Its First Sale Today Collectors and book lovers tell us that even the normal prices of our rare and fine books are lower than those asked elsewhere. ¶ Now, because the Book Store in its spacious new home is rearranging its shelves, comes a Sale which brings prices down still further.

It will be possible today to fit out a good library at less than the cost of the bindings.

There will be about a thousand volumes in this Sale; first, fine and extra illustrated editions bound in half and full calf and half and full morocco by master book binders; sets of Prescott, Macaulay, Walpole, Dickens, Byron, Rus-kin, Lord Lytton, Eliot, Bacon, De Quincey, Burke. A valuable collection of Napoleonana, biographies, and works on history and art are among the treasures.

Several Cruikshank items will attract those who collect books illustrated by the famous English Caricaturist.

Costume and colored plate books are among the interesting "finds."

If you are a real book lover you will have a happy time browsing about in the Fine Book Shop, to be re-warded perhaps by finding, at a smaller price than you ever expected to pay, a volume you have always longed to possess.
